DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 5/9/07 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1), which requires the following: (1) a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office; (2) U.S. patents and U.S. patent application publications listed in a section separately from citations of other documents; (3) the application number of the application in which the information disclosure statement is being submitted on each page of the list; (4) a column that provides a blank space next to each document to be considered, for the examiner's initials; and (5) a heading that clearly indicates that the list is an information disclosure statement. The information disclosure statement has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ikeda et al. US 6,417,283 or Hayashi et al. US 2003/0105213.

4. The rejection set forth under 35 USC 103 in the paper mailed 1/16/07 is deemed proper and is herein repeated. The newly amended claims and remarks filed in support thereof have been fully considered but have been found not persuasive.

5. Applicants acknowledge that the art shows the claimed carbon black, which is a commercially available and conventionally used ingredient, but fails to teach the advantages associated with the specifically claimed carbon black when used in tire applications. This is not persuasive. The claims are directed to a composition. The use in tire applications is a mental step and does not further limit the claims. The fact that the art is silent as to the alleged improvements is not germane. The claimed carbon black is commercially available and a conventionally used ingredient in rubber compounding. The properties imparted by this ingredient are understood. The allegation of new properties for an old composition does not predicate patentable subject matter.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
